

Obituary

Died: Monday, July 20, 2015

Lolo - Danny E. Valladao, Sr., 71, passed away Monday, July 20, 2015 at his home in Lolo. He was born February 1, 1944 in Oakland, CA, the son of Roy and Anna Valladao. He was raised in Oakland and when he graduated from high school he married Pat Connely, currently of Phoenix, AZ. He had two sons, Michael and Danny, Jr. He was divorced and married Dolores. She had five kids which he raised. They moved to Victor where he worked at Van Evans until it closed. He divorced and the married Ella Crowder. They lived in Missoula then moved to Lolo where his wife continues to live. He worked for Smurfit Stone until he retired in 2009. His only real passion was golf and he enjoyed fishing, hunting and working on his house. He also enjoyed family outings and building golf clubs. He was very busy and enjoyed whatever he was doing. He was always willing to help anyone who needed it and was very good at anything he tried to do. His wife Ella has two daughters which he also raised. In all he supported and raised two sons and seven step-kids. He was preceded in death by his parents, several aunts, uncles and cousins, most of which were in California. He is survived by his wife Ella of Lolo; his sons, Michael and Danny, Jr. of Arizona; step-daughters, Charlotte Crowder of Stevensville and her husband Phil Gotcher and Christy and her husband Taz Oliver of Missoula; three other step-daughters; two step-sons; two step-grandsons including Zach Gotcher of Stevensville; a step-granddaughter, Marina Gotcher also of Stevensville; a grandson, Evan of Arizona; several cousins; a brother, Terry. There will be no service or visitation. Cremation is being handled by Whitesitt Funeral Home in Stevensville.

Service Summary

---

No services to be held

Location: - Not available -